MIXOLOGY CLASS WITH BAREBONES BARTENDING SCHOOL

The bartenders at BareBones Bartending are experts at making seasonal cocktails using garden ingredients, unique spirits and house made sodas.

This 1.5 hour long class is an ideal activity to plan just before dinner instead of a cocktail reception.

Class includes: Welcome cocktail upon arrival, with two sample sized drink preparations.

For groups of 10-50 people.

*Please note that a dedicated on-site event space is required to host this event.

Please inquire for prices.

Some of Langdon Hall's nibbles & snacks can be added for $15.00 per person, plus gratuities & HST.

OPTION 1: "Breakfast Lunch & Dinner" Event

House made syrup mimosas on arrival, followed by a Paloma Station (tequila, grapefruit and sea salt) and an espresso martini to wrap things up.

OPTION 2: Prohibition Cocktail Event

If the group is interested in spirit forward cocktails, we can make Old Fashioned Cocktails & Traditional Whiskey Sours, with a French 75 greeting cocktail.

OPTION 3: Modern Classics Event

These are our personal favourites. We'll setup a mint/cucumber infused gimlet martini, and our very popular chili spiced margarita, with a Le Fizz greeting cocktail (the Le fizz is an elderflower and vodka spritzer).

OPTION 4: Pre-Prohibition

A trio of cocktails full of incredible history dating back as early as 1830. This theme includes one of the oldest cocktails ever created, the Sazerac, a delicious spirit forward precursor to the Old Fashioned, along with a cocktail that would inspire the modern Bellini called the Alador, a mixture of rum, fresh peach nectar, and prosecco, and finally the Hemingway Daiquiri, a drink made famous by the author and an exceptional summer drink.

OPTION 5: Modern Summer Cocktails

This trio is wonderful, light, and refreshing. We start with a newly crafted Watermelon-Ginger Mule, followed by the famous Tiki cocktail the Mai Tai, stripped down to just four essential ingredients, and finishing with a fresh BlackBerry Mint Julep.

ADVENTURES IN MAGIC AND TEAM BUILDING WITH ANTHONY LINDAN

There's nothing like a few magic tricks and some laughs to bring a group together. Anthony has been performing for over 30 years and is one of Canada's top corporate magicians performing both stand up shows and strolling close up magic. Choose a fun yet challenging team building workshop focused on learning magic tricks and practicing the 3 C's (communication, cooperation and collaboration), an after dinner stand up show that will surprise and amaze with sleight of hand and mind tricks, or introduce Anthony into your cocktail reception or meal to perform sleight of hand and up close tricks with individuals for a more interactive experience. LANGDON HALL WALKING AND BIKING TRAILS

Throughout the property there are 12 kilometers of woodland trails. For our guests to use, mountain bikes (4) are available to discover the trails. Trail maps can be found in each of the guest rooms or at the reception desk.

GUIDED WALK THROUGH THE CAROLINIAN FOREST WITH JEANETTE VINCENT

Walk directly from Langdon Hall along the Grand Alee where one would arrive in years gone by via horse and carriage. The trees that line Grand Alee, Carolina Poplars, some still standing, enhanced the experience of arrival. We retrace our steps from the original gates via “Deer Run” and “Maple Lane” to Langdon Hall. The trail is good and a pair of walking shoes is about all we need. The pace is moderate and designed to explore this special part of Ontario, its trees, plants, history and geology. The guide, Jeanette Vincent, is a long time hike leader for the Bruce Trail and Grand Valley Trails Associations.

$200.00 Escort fee for up to 3 hour events.

GOOD LEAF FOREST BATHING

Forest bathing involves leisurely walks through natural environments, typically forests, while engaging all the senses to establish a deep connection with the surroundings. Unlike traditional hiking, forest bathing is less about physical exertion and more about cultivating a mindful presence in the moment. The combination of sensory engagement, mindful awareness, and the therapeutic ambiance of the forest all contribute to a forest bathing experience that fosters relaxation, reduces stress, and promotes health and wellness of the body, mind and spirit.

For groups of 5-15 people. This activity is typically 2.5-3 hours, however can be customized to a shorter timeline. Reservations required 14 days in advance.

Priced at $65.00 per person, plus gratuities and taxes.

ARCHERY INSTRUCTION WITH A PRO (Usually Available May-October)

Discover the ancient and noble art of archery. Our nationally certified coaches will come on-site to Langdon Hall and take you through the rudiments and principles of bowmanship and have you hitting the bull's-eye in no time. Continuous activity – usually 60 to 90 minutes Recommendation: 4 participants per instructor each participant shoot every second round – so half the group is waiting half of the shooting time.

Private instruction: 1-2 participants $225.00 plus service & HST

Group instruction: 3-6 participants $350.00 plus service & HST

For larger groups, we can arrange “Drop In” shooting – shooting opportunity is available for participants to “drop in” and try shooting a few arrows — 2 to 3 hour opportunity to shoot, but participants “drop in and out” for a few shots. They can “drop in” multiple times depending on the demand of the group.

7-12 participants $550.00 plus service & HST (two instructors required)
